CORDOVA AK, March 14th, 2023 - In celebration of International Women's Day, join Cordova Chamber of Commerce on March 21st for a special "Women In Business" edition of its community-building series, Business Beers. Appetizers, beverages, resources for women-led businesses, and good conversations will be shared; with the goal of building community among Cordova's business professionals. You are invited to come share the triumphs, struggles, and beauty of doing business at this free event. Meet at the Reluctant Fisherman on Wednesday, March 21st from five to seven PM, grab a drink, sample some apps, and enjoy the comradery of Cordova's business professionals.

"Cordova is brimming with vibrant and hard-working female leaders, and we're excited to celebrate them," said Chamber director Cathy Renfeldt. "All are welcome to come share community and lift up our women-led businesses and organizations at this inclusive event."

Business in Cordova is a unique challenge only other Cordovan business professionals can understand. Doing business with others while sharing the highs and lows can make this journey so much more rewarding. Come share your experience, expertise, wins, and losses with this group of people ready to cheer you on. Don't do business alone, join the chamber community at this month's Business Beers.

The Cordova Chamber of Commerce is governed by a 16-member board of directors and is comprised of approximately 150 members. In addition to operating the Cordova Visitor Center, the Chamber's work is divided into four primary program areas: economic development, quality of life, destination marketing, and business support.
